GROVES ELECTED TO BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF INTERNATIONAL LAW FIRM NETWORK

DENVER (October 22, 2008) – Attorney K.C. Groves, managing director of Denver-based law firm Ireland Stapleton Pryor & Pascoe PC, has been elected to the board of directors of the State Capital Group, a worldwide law firm network.

Groves, a business lawyer handling complex commercial litigation, was elected at the network's recent meeting in San Francisco to serve a three-year term on the group's board of directors and a one-year term as the group's treasurer.

The State Capital Group is an association of 140 independent law firms, including firms from 88 foreign countries, committed to performing the highest quality of legal work. The group provides a trustworthy and effective resource for identifying local counsel worldwide.

In his day-to-day practice, Groves helps companies and individuals in complex litigation, regulatory proceedings, alternative dispute resolution and litigation-avoidance strategies. He earned his bachelor's degree from the University of Michigan and his law degree from the University of Colorado.
